

January is National Human Trafficking Awareness month. This month take time to learn about what human trafficking looks like, where it happens, and who is vulnerable, including students. Find out what you can do to help bring awareness to your school, peers, and community. Choose at least one (or more!) task from each section. Let's learn, take action, and mobilize others this month - together!

LEARN

- Learn the different types of human trafficking, the indicators of human trafficking and more from Polaris.
- Discover “Is Human Trafficking happening In My Community?” with the Engage Together® Blog.
- Watch awareness videos to see and understand how sex trafficking happens in schools, how labor trafficking occurs, and more.
- Listen to the Ending Human Trafficking Podcast.
- Review the Engage Together® Blogs about prevention, online safety, what human trafficking looks like, why word choice matters, and more.
